AlphaCorp spreads warmth with winter home fest in Noida

20/12/2019 , by Realty Plus, in ALLIED

Noida sector 150 saw a happy winter afternoon as the Alpha Residences echoed with the happiness and laughter of kids. With colourful balloons against the bright blue sky, kids gathered to celebrate Winter Home Fest. The event was full of fun activities, swings and some gastronomic delights that engaged children along with the parents.

With rains marking the arrival of winter, the event was held at the site of Alpha Residences in Noida sector 150. While fun activities kept kids engaged in playful mood their parents had an opportunity to get a sneak peek of the sample apartment at Alpha Residences.

The event witnessed a number of kids from the vicinity having a joyful time in winter sunlight. The attractions of this special winter home fest were carnival games based on a winter theme along with food, fun raffles, games and more. There were also other activities like painting and art work that were loved by the kids.

"I came here with my kids and enjoyed the carnival. It was a very unique initiative by AlphaCorp through we engaged with people and kids who came from areas nearby and also from different regions. My kids have made new friends here. The weekend was spent with joy and happiness" said a parent.

Besides that, children also got to click pictures at the selfie booth. There were food stalls serving delicacies that were enjoyed by the people of all age groups.

Noida sec - 150 is set to be an upcoming sports city which will establish a great sporting infrastructure in the region turning it into a sports destination. With 80% green cover which is highest in Noida, sec- 150 is conceptualized on the theme of Urban forest green.
